

Work experiences at White&Case included advising:

- A leading telecommunication company on merger filing in connection with its acquisition of a cable television company;
- A leading energy company on merger filing in connection with its acquisition of a wind farm;
- Several Hungarian mill owners involved in a cartel investigation conducted by the GVH;
- A leading CEE private equity firm on merger filings in Ukraine, Serbia and Austria in connection with its acquisition of a Hungarian telecommunication company;
- A telecommunication company with respect to an internal investigation;
- A preeminent power transmission system operator with respect to an abuse of dominant position investigation and litigation;
- An international company and its Hungarian subsidiary which are active in the railway construction industry and involved in a market sharing cartel investigation conducted by the GVH;
- An information management company with antitrust-related legal advice regarding its entry into the market of pharmaceutical databases;
- A Switzerland-based multinational food giant on the merger control aspects of its acquisition of the Balaton chocolate wafer countline business;
- A global leader in aerospace and defence on the competition law aspects of the access conditions to interface emergency radio network;
- The world's largest pharmaceutical company on the competition law-related aspects of its newly designed promotional schemes;
- A Chinese insurance company on merger filings in Ukraine, Italy and Germany in connection with its acquisition of a 50% shareholding in a leading asset management company; and
- A regulatory body with respect to the several regulatory issues (frequency tenders, review of the 2002 telecom regulatory package, ERG/IRG, multiplex tender, public labor law)